

Emerging Scholar Award

The postsecondary award of the Michigan Oral History Association is presented every year at the MOHA Annual Conference. The award-winning scholar will receive an award certificate, a one-year membership in the MOHA, a check for $250, and complimentary registration to the following year's annual conference.

Criteria for the award are:

Due: August 1, 2022

- The scholar has incorporated an innovative strategy for the use of oral history; and/or successfully implemented an existing strategy for doing oral history; and/or used oral history in print or other medium to enhance learning;
- The scholar's work is a model for the use of oral history;
- The scholar has demonstrated familiarity with both oral history scholarship and the literature relating to oral history;
- The project adheres to appropriate standards for historical research and interpretation, oral history interviewing, preservation of recordings (and transcripts, where applicable), and presentation;

To nominate a scholar for this award, submit one copy of each of the following materials below to the Emerging Scholars awards committee: Due: August 1, 2022

- A cover page with all necessary contact information.
- A one-page statement describing both the scholar's goals relating to the use of oral history and the details of the oral history project the scholar has developed;
- Supporting materials such as, transcripts, press releases and other promotional material, publications, media productions, et cetera; and
- A nominating or supporting letter from a professor describing both the scholar's use of oral history and the rationale for nomination.

Nominations may come from educators themselves or from colleagues, students, administrators, or community members who recognize the accomplishments of an educator in using oral history to enhance education.

Please submit all nominations to;

Due: August 1, 2022

Dr. Russ Magnaghi

Professor of History Emeritus & University Historian

Northern Michigan University

148 & 149 Gries Hall

1401 Presque Isle Ave.

Marquette MI 49855-5301

rmagnagh@nmu.edu

See details of the Nomination Form below.

Please use the Nomination Form below and submit nominations electronically with Nomination Letter attached.

Emerging Scholar Award

Nomination Form Due: August 1, 2022

MICHIGAN ORAL HISTORY ASSOCIATION
"Preserving Michigan Voices."

Cover Page

Name of Scholar _____

College or University _____

Scholar's Address _____ City _____ Zip Code _____

Email Address _____ Phone Number _____

Name of Professor _____ Title _____

College or University _____ Department _____

Mailing Address _____ City _____ Zip Code _____

Email Address _____ Phone Number _____

Emerging Scholar Award

- A one-page statement describing both the scholar's goals relating to the use of oral history and the details of the oral history project the scholar has developed;

MICHIGAN ORAL HISTORY ASSOCIATION
"Preserving Michigan Voices."

Statement Attached

Emerging Scholar Award

- Supporting materials such as, transcripts, press releases and other promotional material, publications, media productions, et cetera; and

Supporting Material Attached

Emerging Scholar Award

- A nominating or supporting letter from a professor describing both the scholar's use of oral history and the rationale for nomination.

Supporting Letter Attached

