

MICHIGAN ORAL HISTORY ASSOCIATION
"Preserving Michigan Voices."

MOHA 2020 Conference
May 16, 2020
Michigan Library and Historical Center
Lansing

This unique conference offers a diverse slate of presentations representing a variety of personal and institutional backgrounds, perspectives, and voices.

Fascinating and useful presentations include:

- Alienation and Belonging in the Oral Histories of Michigan Iranian Americans
  - Creating, Promoting, and Growing a University Archives Oral History Program
  - Using Oral Histories to Family Genealogy
  - Capturing Ethnic Communities
  - Incorporating Oral Histories in the College Classroom
  - The Detroit/Southern Michigan Punk Scene
  - Capturing Oral History Through a Museum
- And more...

MOHA members receive conference fee discounts.

Watch for upcoming information on program and registration!

2020 MOHA Membership Due
See Page 2 and Page 8
for exciting new benefits!

"A Guide For Doing Successful Oral Histories"

Updated version of MOHA Guide!
Handy, easy-to-use for beginners and experienced.

Includes:

Starting an Oral History Project

The Plan

Preparation

Paperwork

Quality Questions Result in

Quality Responses

Equipment

Creating the Setting

Materials Check List

Tips for a Successful Interview

The Interview Is Over: Now What?

Guidelines for Transcribing

Ethical Issues

Copyright and Oral Histories

IRB Considerations

Selected Oral History Resources

Recording Oral Histories

Using Oral Histories:

- In the Classroom

- For College Study

- To Enhance Museum & Library Exhibits

Sample Forms

Copy of Guide included FREE in 2020 MOHA Membership

Extra copies: $6 (See p. 2 for address)